Washington University's total day school enrollment for the Fall 2013 semester is 12,592 per data captured at the 10th week of the semester. An additional 1,571 students are enrolled in evening and part-time programs, bringing the total University enrollment to 14,163.

Undergraduate students: 6,611 undergraduates are enrolled in day school divisions and 771 in evening and part-time programs.

Graduate students: 5,981 graduate and professional students are enrolled in day school divisions and 800 in evening and part-time programs.

Total degree-seeking enrollments for Fall 2013: 12,202 full-time and 1,268 part-time students.

Gender and Ethnicity

As a university, we continue to enroll fairly equal numbers of women (7226, 51%) and men (6937, 49%). These percentages hold true for both undergraduate and graduate student populations.

Over 40% of WU students identify with a non-White ethnic or racial group or international population. New federal reporting categories have enabled us to capture more detail on the race and ethnicity of our non-White, multiracial and international students. Among those students reporting racial and ethnic affiliations (noting that students are able to report an affiliation with more than one group), 4.5% are Hispanic or Latino, 0.8% are American Indian or Alaska Native, 24% are Asian, 6.8% are Black or African American, and 0.1% are Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander; 53.8% of our students are White and not multi-racial (10.7% are unreported). The international student enrollment is now 15.8% of our total enrollment.
